

Vedic Rivers Present Names Tricks

The Vedic culture revolves around four Vedas Rigveda, Atharvaveda, Yajurveda, and Samaveda, and mainly appears to be Rigveda. And in whole societal and economical development rivers were the backbone or had a most important part. Hence we sometimes called our culture “Ganga-Januni tahzeeb”

In Rigveda, the names of the rivers are mentioned. Aryans were mostly confined to the Saptasindhu river. All are found in the Early Vedic period.

In Rigveda total of 30 tribes were mentioned. Also, there is a mention of the battle of Dasrajana ie the battle of ten kings.
